

Tartars Rip Olympians To Open League Play

Eight OCTOBER 12, 1952

WARRIORS WIN 27-0

Crawford Passes Pair for Camino Win Over 'Diego

The slinging arm of Bill Crawford accounted for two of the four TDs chalked up by the El Camino Warriors as they ripped by San Diego State 27-0 in the opening Metropolitan Conference fray of the year.

The Warriors got off to a late start, but rallied in the second, and then up a pair of counters in the third. They ended the night's activity with seven more big points in the closer.

Joe Link, Jerry Horn, Don Lauria and Steve Daggett got credit for the tallies with Ken Swearingen's trusty kicking foot counting for 3 points after the touchdowns.

Horn and Daggett got the tosses from Crawford for the two passing points.

Tourney Near At Horseshoe Courts Here

Torrance's first singles horse shoe tourney will begin Oct. 20 at the new Adult Recreation Center, Cravens and Post Aves., according to Frank Carpenter, recreation director.

Open only to men 21 years of age or older, the tourney will be based on a 16-player bracket to get under way on the 20th. A 32-player tourney will be added if enough men sign up.

Game time will be arranged to fit individual schedules. Information can be obtained at the Adult Center, or men can enter by calling Torrance 17.

ANTLERLESS DEER SEASON OCT. 17

Three hundred California sportsmen will be issued permits Friday, Oct. 17, to take part in the post-season antlerless deer hunting shoot designed to rid the Coloma area of surplus deer. The special permits will be sold for $1 each on a first-come, first-served basis at the Gold Trail Grange building in Coloma. The Department of Fish and Game temporary license of office will open at 9:00 a.m.

3146. Entries are due by Oct. 17.

Samohi Crushes Inglewood; BH Eked by Redondo

Coach Jim Sutherland's powerful Santa Monica eleven rolled out a 26-7 win over Inglewood Friday night as the Samohi squad showed it again means business in the race for Bay League champion.

Meanwhile, the running and place kicking of Doug Dick proved too much for an exceptionally strong Beverly Hills eleven as the Redondo Seahawks nudged a 14-12 win at the Seahawk Bowl.

Bayliss, Jones Shine in First League Fracas

Playing "heads-up" ball paid off for the Tartars as they whipped the Leuzinger Olympians 18-6 out Lawdale way Friday night to open the door on the Bay League season.

The Torrance High gridders stuck close to the ground in their win, and let loose with only five aerials—completing one for a 44-yard chase to a touchdown.

Bayliss Breaks Ice
Harry Bayliss broke the ice deep in the first period as he shattered through right tackle after trying to swing wide for an end run. Bayliss slipped through the secondary, darted obliquely to the left, then made for the goal, some 86 yards away.

But the Olympians were quick to retaliate. After 1 minute and 35 seconds of the second quarter and after powering from their own 40 to the Torrance 25, big Ray Miller blasted down the middle to score. The try for point slammed into the cross-bar and fell aside—no good.

The Tartars took the kickoff on the 28 and scooted to the 43. Big Beryl Jones shoved up for seven yards, Bayliss hit off tackle for 3, Jones went for one and two more for first down, and with the seed on the Leuzinger 44, Jim Farrar flipped to Larry Roy who galloped the distance for a counter.

Again the PAT—a pass—failed. Highly sparked squads came back onto the field after the half-time break, but Leuzingers Ray Miller and Jack Crabtree found a weak spot and lunged time and again through the middle of the Tartar line.

Kasten Intercepts
After punching to the locals' 40-yard line from their own 20, Leuzinger's Toni Altieri flipped a long one. Torrance's Don Kasten, playing deep safety, backed to the 15, gathered it in and raced to the 37 before he was dropped.

The maroon-clad gang punted after failing to progress, but got the ball four downs later. A kick to the Tartar 22 was snatched in by Harry Bayliss who made for the right side line and ripped 48 yards to the Leuzinger 30.

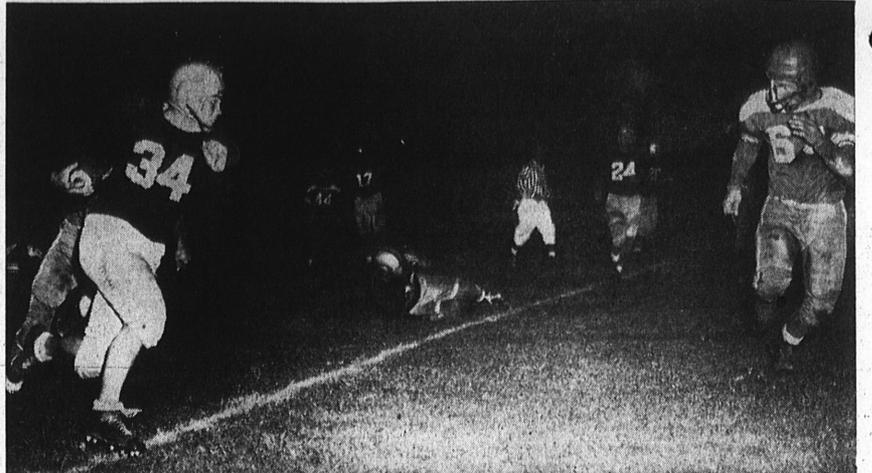

Jones blasted off left tackle twice in a row, advancing to the 3. Next play, he hit the same hole and scored.

Play Sharp Game
Although the foes chalked up 15 first downs to 3, it was several long break-aways that spelled the winning difference for THS. The Tartars played their best game of the season, with Burt Smith, Tom Smith, Ed Powell, Frank Christenson, Jim O'Hara, Ted Marcoux and Lee Mortenson turning in some red hot play.

O'Hara had the true luck of the Irish with him on one attempt as he left the sidelines too late to get into defensive tackle position before the Olympians put the ball into play. A right end sweep some 20 yards wide was powered right into the waiting arms of rough and ready O'Hara, who smeared the ball handler to the turf.

All in all, Coach Cliff Graybell's boys were up against some tough competition, and came through to a good win. Jim Farrar tossed several beautiful long passes, but each was a little far for Roy or Mortenson to reach.

Next week the Tartars will meet Jim Sutherland's powerful Santa Monica squad—and the game of games.

CARRIES THE MAIL . . . Harry Bayliss, flashy Tartar tailback, zips around right end after taking a punt on the Torrance 22 to clear the way for the final tally of the night in the Leuzinger fray Friday night. Harry moved to the Leuzinger 30 before he was dropped. Tartars beat, 18-6, in their first Bay League encounter. The clever backfielder earlier shimmied 86 yards to a TD.
